

User Guide for pinlogue

Pinlogue, your social travel companion helps you meet new people through their location, share photos, videos, images, view friends' updates, group interest and more... Pinlogue is one of the best photo and information sharing platform where one can take a photo, share it with their friends, families and groups or even share useful information with them which shows how you live your real life. One can also build and strengthen the personal and professional connections while pulling together the Facebook and Phone book contacts to simplify easy communication.

Pinlogue will also help you discover people in your life all in one place, no matter where they are located right now! Whether you are searching for old school or college friends, looking out for loved ones, trying to get in touch with your family members or willing to maintain other relations you have created during your lifetime, Pinlogue will help you to achieve it.

It brings a whole host of advanced features such as Mapins, Groupins & Hapins to help you find, share and connect with anyone and anywhere across the globe. Pinlogue, a photo sharing application will help you to stay connected with everyone you CARE about! The application basically has three main features. They are:

🕒 Pinlogue Features

1. Getting Started

Signing into the Pinlogue App.

2. Main Menu/Home Screen

Getting familiar with home screen or main menu options mapins, groupins and hapins.

3. App Setting Options

Description of how a user can make basic settings in his/her profile, manage invitations, friends, groups and location service for their account.

4. Mapins

Description of Mapins feature within an app.

5. Groupins

Description of Groupins feature within an app with instructions set that will help users to manage groups.

6. Hapins

Description of hapins features within an app with the instructions that will help users to create, edit and delete diary, view & upload video, images, audio and text, comment on the uploads within a diary and lot more...

1. GETTING STARTED

The Pinlogue app is intended for use by users to share their wonderful life's moments with the loved ones. Meet new people, track their online location and share your videos, images, pictures, updates, group interest

When you first launch the Pinlogue app,

1. You must enter the Email ID and Password, if you're an existing user.
2. If you're not an existing user of the app, you will have to tap on the Signup button to get yourself registered in order to use this app.
3. Or you can also login from your Facebook username and password.

To make login entries, tap the login fields for the keyboard present on device.

Note: (If you click on "Login with Facebook", you will get a pop-up asking to input valid Facebook ID and Password to access the app.)

2. Main Menu Screen

Once you have successfully signed in, you will be redirected to the pinlogue home page, which will allow users to access the following areas:

- Mapins : Access to map, which shows the location of the user in consort with the location of friends available online with their status updates.
- Groupins : Let the user access groups created by them as well as groups they're associated with.
- Hapins : Provides access to diaries created by the user as well as by their friends.

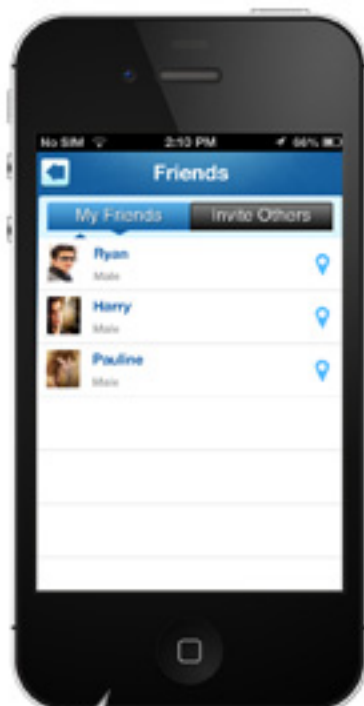

Also, user can get notifications for status updates and invitations from friends on the home screen. Users can also signout from the app by clicking on the icon located at the corner on the top left side of the app.

3. SETTINGS

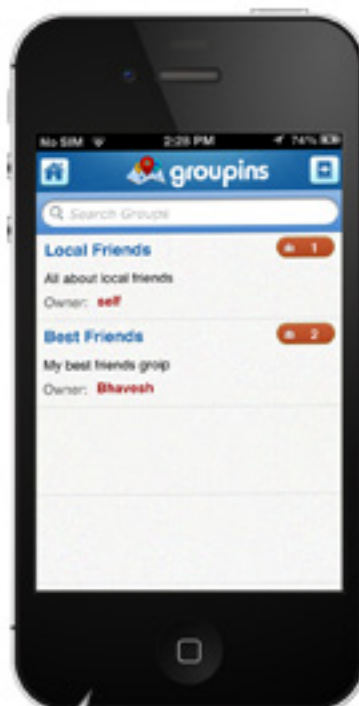

From the home screen, tap on the setting button located on the upper right side in the app. Here you will find all the basic details, such as My Profile, Friends, Groups, Invitation and Location Services.

1. Tap on "My Profile" link to get profile details. Select an edit button to edit profile details, such as name.
2. Tap on "Friends" to view a list of friends. You can also invite friends through "Invite Others" option.
3. Tap on "Groups", which will redirect to the Groupins page where user can find details about the groups they're associated with.
4. To find invitations, select "Invitation" in setting menu where the user can see Friend Invites, Group Invites and Hapins Invites.
5. To enable or disable location services, tap on the On/Off button in settings.

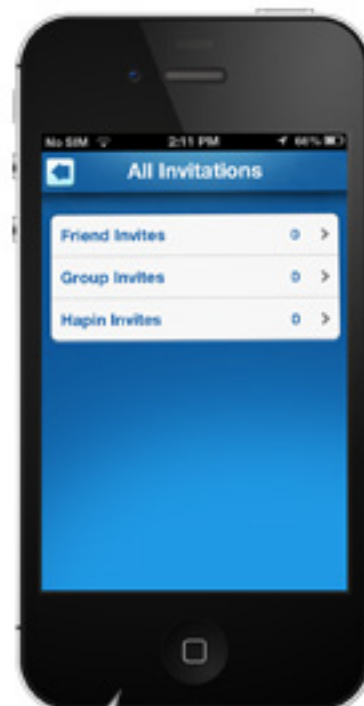

Tap on the Friends tab to see existing friends as well as to invite new friends.

Tap on Groups tab to see groups created and joined by you.

Tap on Invitation tab to see invitations to join groups, friends or invitations from Hapins.

4. MAPINS

To view the location and friends who have posted or updated status recently, touch the Mapins icon from the application main menu. The Mapins section will enable you to browse the online friends and status updates by your as well as from friends with date and time on the map.

1. From the main menu, tap on Mapins to view the location as well as recent posts or activities from friends.
2. Tap on the name of a friend listed below the map to view his/her profile.
3. To update status or comments, click on the Post button.

Note:

- Tap on the Back arrow on top of the screen to go back to home page.
- To refresh the map, click on "refresh" button on the top right corner of the screen.

Filter Based on the location:

User can easily filter the friends over the map based on the different search criteria.
To filter the users:

1. Tap on the slider located on the left side of an app.
2. Choose from the available options: Recent, Online, Nearby, Locate

Recent: - By default criteria, which will show friends who have recently posted.

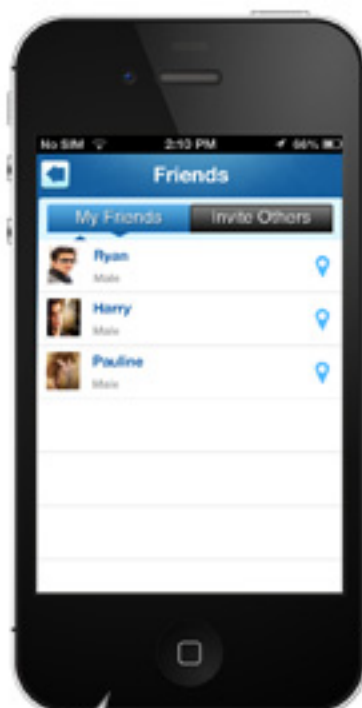

Online: - It will show only the users or friends who are online.

Nearby: - It will let the user filter friends based on their longitude and latitude.

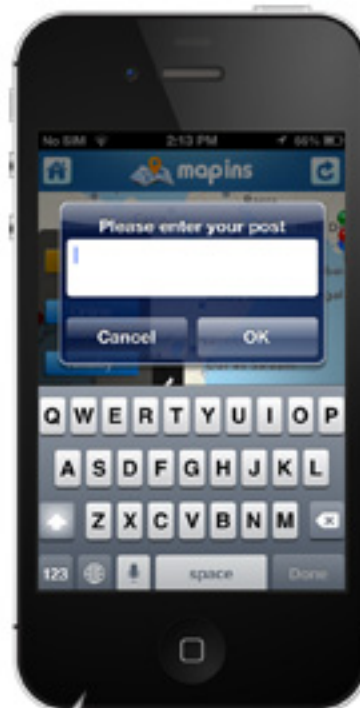

Locate: - Help users to locate the users based on their locations

3. User can also add friends by clicking on "Add Friend" button on the slider.

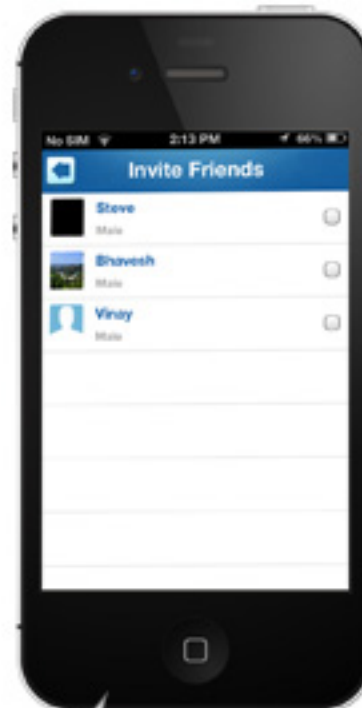

Tap on the Locate tab to filter the map results based on friend you locate or choose from the list.

Tap on Post tab to post a comment.

Tap on Add Friend tab to invite or or new friends to join you.

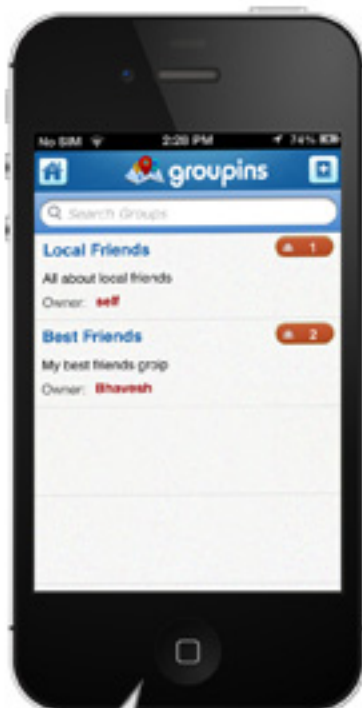

Note: -

- Green Pings shown in the map indicates the online friends, and "Red" ping indicates the concern user is offline.
- User can tap on a Ping shown over the map to view the profile of his/her online friends.

5. GROUPINS

It is time to know what your group members are up to! Groupins is all about groups, which are created by the users or groups of their interest. To access Groupins, touch the Groupins icon from the main menu of an app. The Groupins section will enable you to browse through the groups created by you as well as groups joined or of your interest.

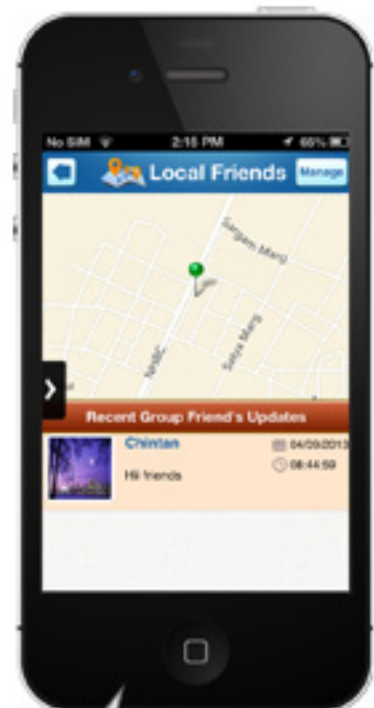

1. From the main menu, tap on Groupins to see the number of groups created and joined by you.
2. Tap on the Search tab to find any specific group of your interest.
3. Tap on a specific group name to get details about group, updates from the group and to post comments or status in it.
4. To create a new group click on the icon shown at the rightmost corner on top. Fill required fields such as Group Name and Description. The user can also send group join request by tapping on Add Friends button.

Tap on the "+" button shown on the top of the app to create a new group.

Fill required fields. The user can also invite or add friends by tapping on "Add Friends" tab.

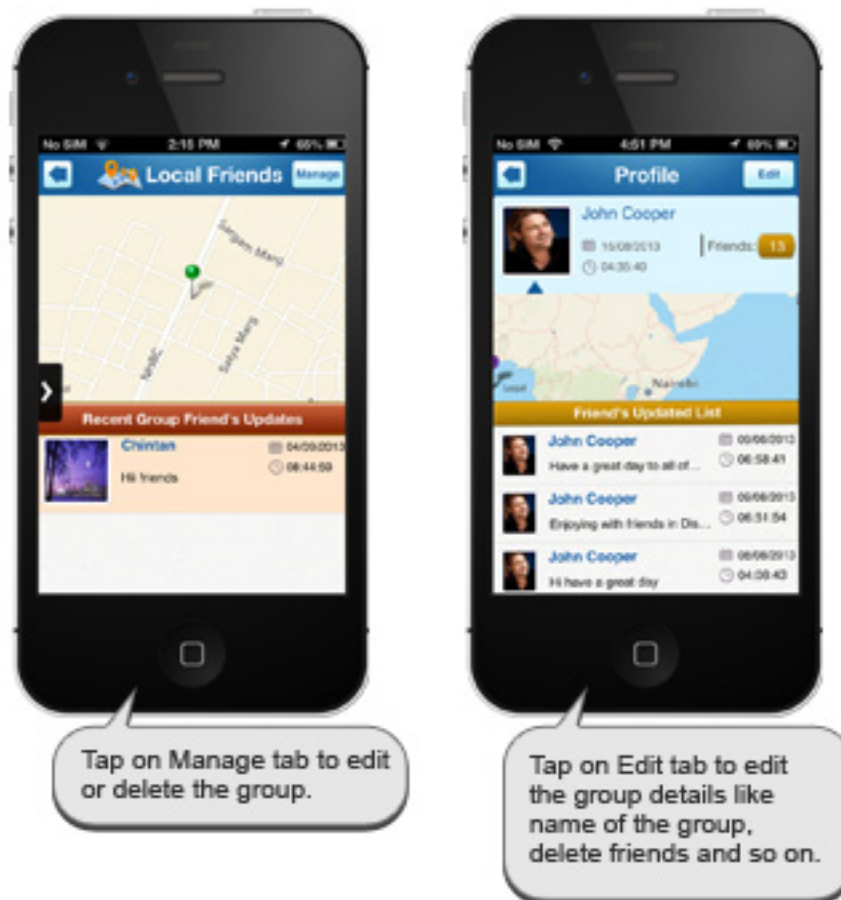

Group profile created by the user.

● Manage Groups:

User can also manage groups created by them. All they've to do is to tap on the "Manage" icon appearing at the top of the group and edit the details such as name of the group and other details as well as delete the group.

User can also view group member's profile and updates or status from them.

Note: -

- Manage icon in the group profile is visible only to the group owner. If a user is the owner of a group, then only he/she can manage or edit group details.
- User can see the profile a group member anytime by tapping on the group member's name in the comment section.

6. HAPINS

Create your own online diary and post images, pictures, videos, audios, text, comments and share it with your friends, family and other connections. This online application is great for people who want to connect with their families, friends or other activist. To access Hapins, touch the Hapins icon from the main menu of an app. The Hapins section will enable you to browse through the diaries created by you as well as from the friends.

1. From the main menu, tap on Hapins to see different diaries created by you and your friends
2. Click on the Search tab to directly search any specific diary.
3. Tap on "Mine" tab to view live and earlier published list of diaries.
4. User can also select All or Topics tabs to filter the results displayed.
5. To create a new diary click on the icon shown at the rightmost corner on top. Fill required fields such as Diary Name, Description, Type – Offline/Online, set the permissions – Public/Private, and Upload an image. The user can also invite groups and add friends by clicking on Manage Group and Add More Friends tab respectively. The user will have to select the start and end date of the diary, which indicates the duration of diary.

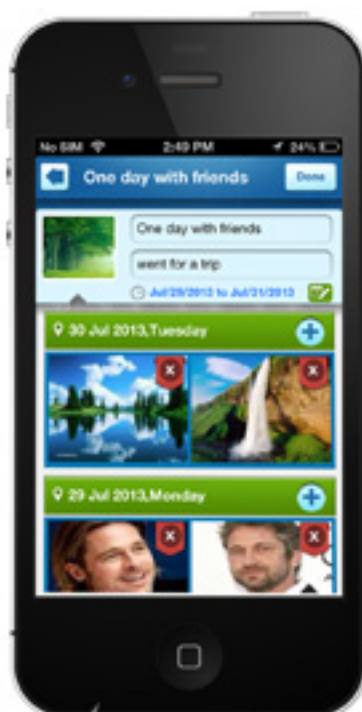

View & Edit Diary:

1. To view the diary, tap on the name of the diary from the list. Here, users can see diary details such as name of the diary, duration, different pages created during the defined period and more.
2. User can also change the view of the diary from a thumbnail to a list view by clicking the icon in the rightmost corner at the top.
3. If the user wish to edit the diary created by him/her, he/she will have to tap on "Edit" button appearing at the top. User can edit the name of the diary, upload Text, Photos, Audios, Videos on any date in between start date and end date.

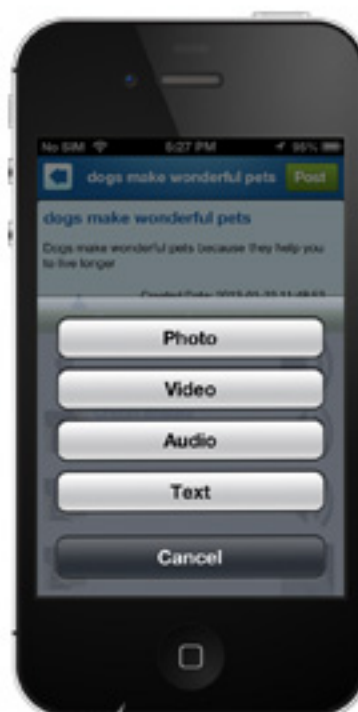

➊ Add Video, Photo, Audio Or Text in Diary

In Edit mode, users can tap on the “+” sign appearing at the top of every page within a diary to add new audio, video, picture or text within a diary.

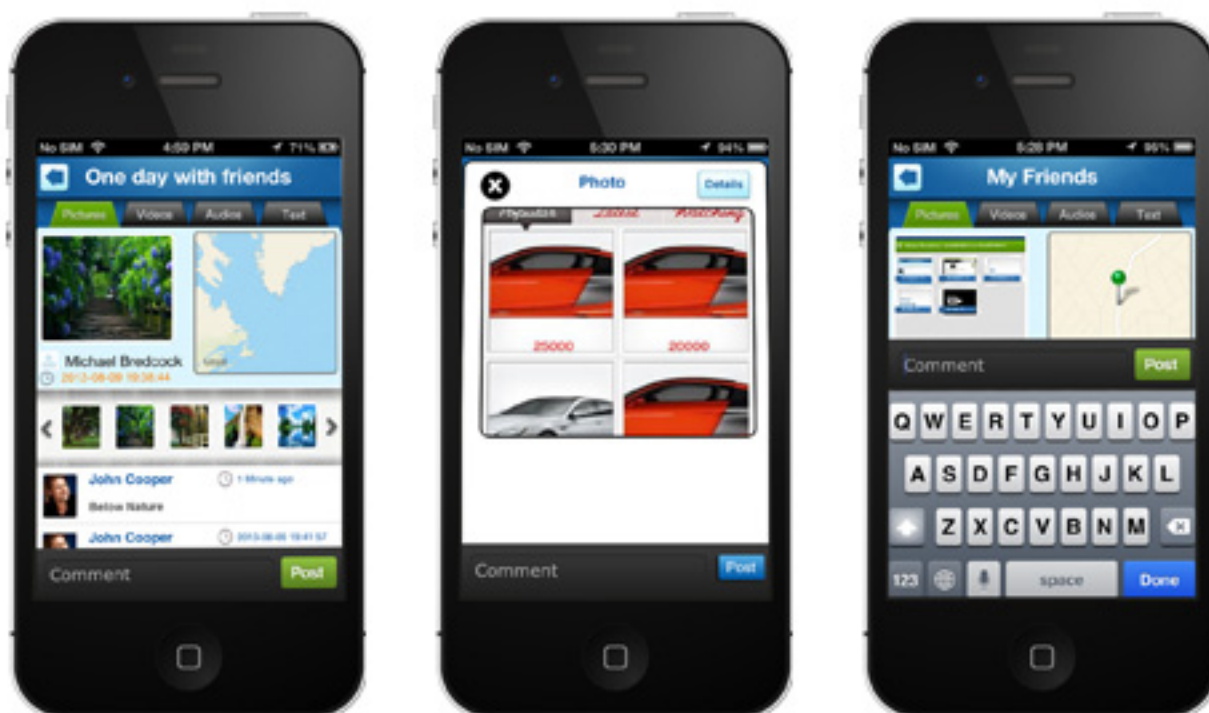

Tap on Edit tab to manage or update diary.

Tap on "+" icon appearing on diary pages created to upload photo, video, audio and text.

View Video, Pictures, Audio, Text and location

1. Tap on a specific date on which the page within a diary to view the author of page, location of the author and various information uploaded by the user in the diary, such as pictures, videos, audios and texts.
2. Tap on different tabs, such as Pictures, Audios, Videos and Text to get their details respectively.
3. Tap on an image to take a full screen preview of it with the comments posted by other users on it.
4. User can also post comments on the pictures, audios, videos or texts posted by the author by clicking on the tab at the bottom of an app.

Note: -

- The user can only edit his/her own diary and thus, they won't find Edit feature in diaries created by the other users.
- User can see the profile a group member anytime by tapping on the group member's name in the comment section.